$3,000 BLAZE
DESTROYS HOUSE
AT ROSECRANS*Children Start Fire Beside Strawstack on a Bean
Hill Farm

The house of John Knox, located about one-half mile south of Rosecrans, was completely ruined by fire Tuesday morning, resulting in a loss of about $3,000, according to insurance men.

The house was occupied by John Knox's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lomont Ray, while he was in California. Discovery of the fire was made by passersby who informed the Rays, and helped them battle the flames. When the Antioch fire department arrived, the interior was a mass of flames. Lack of water further hindered the department in extinguishing the fire.

Most of the contents of the house were removed by neighbors before the firemen arrived. The loss on furniture and other household goods was estimated at over $200.

The cause of the fire, although not definitely determined, is thought to have been a chimney fire.

Gusseron Straw Stack Burns
Seeing the fire department go by their farm on its way to Rosecrans, inspired the children of Hugo Gusseron to play with matches near the straw stack, it is reported. At any rate, the firemen had scarcely returned from the Rosecrans fire, before they were called to the Gusseron farm on Bean Hill. Fortunately the wind blew the flames away from the buildings, none of which were damaged.

Called to Lake Villa.
The fire department was called to Lake Villa to James Atwell's home, late Monday afternoon, but the fire, which had been started in a box of smoldering ashes, had been extinguished.

Unusual, Varied
Program Arranged
For Music Festival*One-Half of Student Body
Will Participate in the Performances

All music-lovers attending the Music Festival of previous years will be pleased with the announcement that the third annual high school Music Festival will be held early in the season this year. Due to the fact that other activities will demand the attention of the students during the spring months, the Festival will be held at the high school auditorium, Monday evening, February 23.

One Hundred to Take Part.
One hundred students will participate in this festival. The fact that this includes one-half of the student body speaks the interest in the musical organizations among the students. Others not taking part in the festival are enrolled in the junior units and beginning classes. The work accomplished in the great movement throughout the United States to introduce more music into the school curriculum.

Six Groups to Perform.
Vocal and instrumental groups will have equal prominence in the program, which will consist of selections by the chorus of sixty-five voices, the boys' and girls' glee clubs, the jazz, senior and junior orchestras, and the string quartet. In addition, John Telashia will again appear in a violin solo, and Hans von Holwede will demonstrate the possibilities of the new grand piano in piano solos.

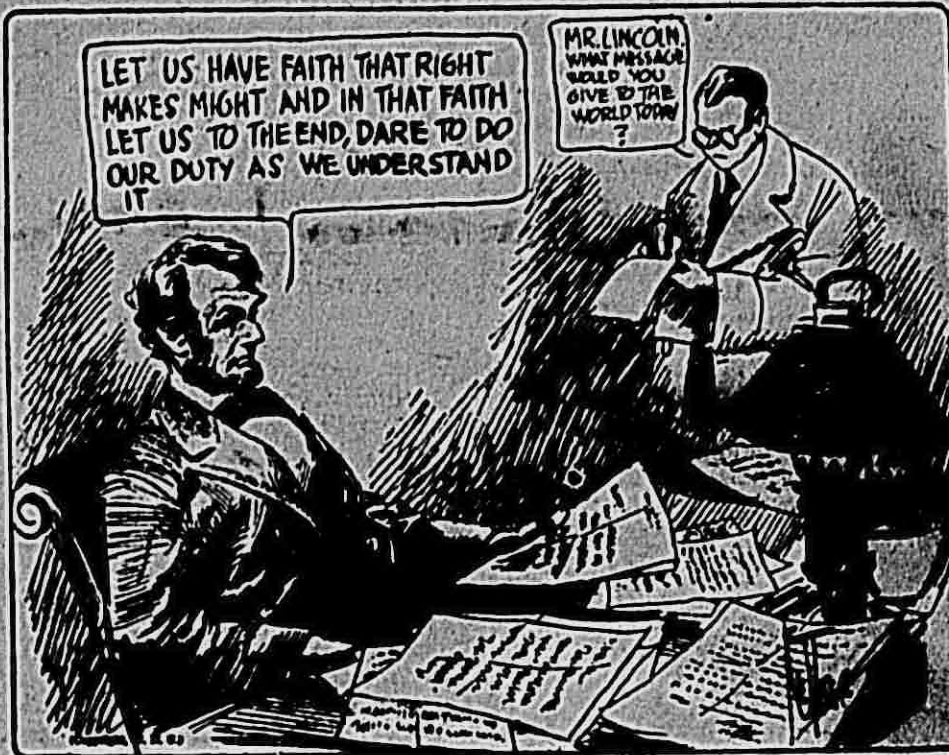

The vocal groups and the senior orchestra will be conducted by E. V. Jeffers, while Hans von Holwede will have charge of the jazz and junior orchestras.

Funds received from this festival will be used to pay for the new grand piano.

McMILLIN WINS IN BOUT WITH A GERMAN FOE

Undaunted by his defeat at the hands of the world's champion wrestler, Jim London, in New York, Jim McMillin, wrestling athlete of Grayslake, began his ascension of the wrestling ladder by defeating Hans Steinke, of Germany, after thirty minutes of wrestling, during which period McMillin far outclassed his heavier, though slower opponent, in skill and speed.

A Sonnenberg stomach butt, preceded by a flying tackle, left Steinke breathless, enabling McMillin to end the bout without difficulty. Jim McMillin is working toward another bout with the champion.

If He Were Here TodayANTIOCH VETERAN IS HONORED AT
D. G. A. R. MEET*Addison J. Felter Talks to Lodge at Lincoln Birth Celebration

A very nice program was given at the meeting of the Daughters of the G. A. R. at their meeting Monday evening, in commemoration of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. The hall was prettily decorated in red, white and blue for the occasion. Following the business meeting an appropriate program was given.

The opening number was the singing of "America" by all present. Mr. Reinke favored the audience with a number of accordion solos, and Addison J. Felter, Antioch's last surviving veteran of the war of '61, gave a very interesting talk, in the course of which he stated that he was the last from Antioch township to enlist in the service and that now he is the last survivor of Antioch's many veterans. Mrs. Felter, who is an honorary member of Monroe Fortness, gave a reading on the life of Lincoln. The program closed with the singing of other numbers by the audience.

The committee in charge of refreshments had arranged a tastefully decorated table large enough to accommodate all present. The national colors predominated in the decorations and in the favors, and in the center of the table was a large cake made especially for the occasion by T. E. Somerville. This cake was decorated in red, white and blue, and bore the letters, "G. A. R." Mr. Felter occupied the seat of honor at the head of the table.

Mrs. Emma Miller and her committee, which consisted of Mesdames Kufalik, Kelly and Haley, and Miss Lottie Jones deserve much credit for the success of the evening's entertainment.

Waukegan Fortness was represented at the meeting by Mesdames Ray, Goggins, Wylie and Duncan.

Boy Shot By
Brother in Play*George Smith Is In Critical Condition From Gun Wound

George P. Smith, 14, son of Ted Smith, of Channel Lake, is in a serious condition today at the St. Theresa's hospital from a gun wound received Sunday night when his 5 year old brother, Theodore, accidentally discharged a rifle which was not believed to be loaded.

His parents were unaware that a gun was in the boys' possession, but they learned that he had obtained it from a playmate to keep until they could go hunting rabbits. The little brother, after asking for and receiving permission to sleep with his brother, slipped the gun while he was playing in the room, pointed the trigger at George, and fired. George hurried downstairs, crying that he was shot, and upon summoning Dr. H. E. Smith, was immediately rushed to the hospital.

Ted Smith has closed his grocery store for the present to look after George and another son, Robert, who has been ill with appendicitis.

HELPS COMMUNITY CHEST FUND HERE

A donation of $2 toward the Antioch Community Chest fund from T. J. Knox is gratefully acknowledged by the committee.

PLAN SOIL TALK
FOR MEETING
AT GRAYSLAKE

Professor C. M. Linsley, of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, will talk at a meeting at Grayslake Thursday, February 19, at 1:15.

As legumes and phosphates form the most essential factors in soil improvement in Lake county, it seems timely that Professor Linsley has chosen to discuss this important subject with the farmers of Lake county.

Receive Donation.
The Lake County Bankers Association, through its secretary, Mr. Crawford, and treasurer, Mr. Hukum, have sent to H. C. Glickerson, country club leader, a donation to be used in 4-H club work in Lake county this year.

The 4-H club committee of the Farm Bureau has not laid definite plans and has not allotted this money to any particular branch of club work yet. Half will go to the girls' club work, provided the Home Bureau is organized so that girls' work may continue this year.

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED FOR
DUAL PRODUCTION*Author of Knave of Hearts
Is Invited to Witness
Performances

Under the efficient general charge of Mrs. P. E. Chinn, president of the grade school Parent-Teachers' Association, preparations for the big dual production of "Treasure Island" and "The Knave of Hearts" got under way with a bang this week. Posters prepared by the pupils of the art department under the direction of Miss Alice Warner are now being placed in the stores about town. It is announced that there will be a dress rehearsal which children not in the plays may attend at the high school auditorium.

Wednesday evening, March 4. The date for the performances for the public will be Friday evening, March 6. Proceeds from the plays will be used to pay for the piano the association recently purchased for the school.

An invitation to Miss Louise Saunders, author of "The Knave of Hearts," has been mailed. It is hoped it will be possible for her to attend. Mrs. Chinn, assisted by Mrs. John Brogan, are handling the programs and advertising connected with the performance.

Miss Alice Warner, assisted by Mrs. Fred Hackett, Mrs. Ben Burke and Mrs. Lester Osmond, constitutes the costume committee.

Miss Mildred Byrnes and Mrs. Fred Hawkins are attending to the properties.

Mrs. Marguerite Kregar Phillips is directing rehearsals.

Rehearsals are now in progress and a complete cast of characters will be announced soon.

DR. JENSEN TO STUDY FACTS OF ANIMAL DISEASES

New facts about disease problems with which local livestock and poultry raisers must cope will be studied and reviewed by Dr. G. W. Jensen while he is away from his office February 11 and 12, attending the twelfth annual Illinois Veterinary Conference, at the college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

The conference is for 600 or more graduate veterinarians of the state and is designed to give them the latest developments on the treatment, control and eradication of animal diseases.

Miss Eleanor Meyers will spend the week-end with her brother, H. F. Meyers, and family, at Aurora, Ill.

MATH. TEACHER QUILTS
AT LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL*Board Will Act upon Resignation of Miss Kirkpatrick Saturday

The resignation of Miss Gladys Kirkpatrick, mathematics instructor at the Antioch township high school, was announced by Principal L. O. Bright today. The resignation becomes effective with the close of school today, according to Principal Bright, who declined to comment upon the reasons for the mathematics teacher leaving the school.

The board of education will act to accept the resignation Saturday when a meeting will be held. It was indicated.

A mathematics teacher to take Miss Kirkpatrick's place will be employed within the next few days, it was announced.

This was Miss Kirkpatrick's first year in the local school. She came here from Galesburg, Ill., at the opening of school last September.

Home Bureau Makes Fine Progress in New Membership Drive

Mrs. Earl Kane, county chairman of the organization committee of the Home Bureau in Lake county, reported Monday, after a check up, that the two past weeks' work on membership by the busy women of the county had netted ninety-three membership cards.

It requires 400 members before the University of Illinois will approve the county for a home advisor. Units will be formed in various sections of the county where the local units will hold their meetings and only large county meetings will be held at Grayslake.

Miss Lulu Black, temporary home advisor, will be in Lake county for a meeting at Grayslake, Friday afternoon, February 13, to assist the women with the work.

It is the hope of the organization committee and others interested in the new Home Bureau, that the sign up will be completed by the last of February in order that the girls' 4-H club work will not be handicapped this year.

Girls' 4-H club work will be under the supervision of the Home Bureau from now on, and delay in securing the required number of members will delay the work for the girls.

The organization committee stated that some misunderstanding has arisen in the county since Mrs. Burns told of the county receiving financial aid towards the home advisor's salary. The report has been spread that Mrs. H. C. Glickerson received $2,000 for her work with the 4-H club girls last summer. The committee, as well as the Farm Bureau board of directors wish to have it definitely understood that they did not receive any money from the state and federal appropriations for girls' 4-H club work last year and that Mrs. H. C. Glickerson did not receive a cent of remuneration for her work with the nineteen clubs and 143 girls enrolled in 4-H club work last year.

Principal W. C. Petty attended the meeting of the Lake County Court of Honor of the Boy Scout organization at Waukegan, Monday evening.

Too Much Sleep Possible
Dr. Risley Russell raises the point that just as most people eat too much there is a probability that many to sleep too much. But this does not apply to children.

Miss Elizabeth Webb is still indisposed, following an extended illness of influenza.

New Thing in Medical Treatment

Rudonasil reflex therapy, the latest contribution to medical science, the discovery of two eminent South American doctors, is now being demonstrated in New York City by Dr. Salvatore Caridi and Dr. Emanuel A. Manginall. The treatment is administered by the stimulating of the nerve centers through the channels of the pose without the use of any medicine.

MOOSE LODGE
INITIATES 11
NEW MEMBERS

Membership in the newly organized Loyal Order of Moose was augmented Monday evening, when eleven new candidates were initiated in the presence of over a hundred members and visitors.

The initiation work was carried out by the degree team from North Chicago, and many visitors were present from Waukegan. The rapid and successful increase in membership to the present number of over a hundred, since its organization in December, already has established this unit as a permanent equal of the neighboring lodges.

DAVIS BOY PASSES
AWAY IN HOSPITAL*Youngest Son of Tracy Davis Dies as Result of Appendicitis

Robert Davis, eight-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Davis of Chestnut street, passed away early Thursday morning at the Lake County hospital, where he had been taken Monday for an operation for appendicitis.

The child first showed signs of illness on Saturday, but it was not until Monday that he became seriously ill. However, the appendix had been ruptured about three days before the operation. In a last effort to save his life, hypodermics were applied from 12 o'clock Thursday morning until his death at 3:45.

Robert was born September 22, 1922, in Antioch, Illinois. He was enrolled in the second grade at the time of his illness.

He is survived by his parents, two sisters, Gladys of Antioch, and Mrs. Otto Toucek of Chicago, three brothers, John, Donald and Alfred, and two nephews, besides many school friends.

Funeral services were held at the home with S. E. Pollock officiating. Interment was in the cemetery at Waukegan.

CELEBRATE 50TH
YEAR OF WEDDED
STATE IN CALIF.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clingman, now of Hollywood, Calif., celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with an informal reception at their home, February 5th. Their grand daughter, Miss Darthea Pfleger, of Evanston, made the trip to California to visit them at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clingman spend their summers at their home on Channel Lake, and have spent the winters in California since 1887. A picture of the couple, together with a brief resume of Mr. Clingman's life activities, was in the Hollywood News of February 4th.

THRONG ATTENDS BENEFIT DANCE AT
ST. PETER'S HALL

The efficient planning by the committee in charge of the benefit dance and card party at St. Peter's hall, Saturday night, produced results. With an attendance of over 800, the affair was undoubtedly successful in every way.

An unusually large number of fine prizes were awarded the card winners, and added more interest to the game.

The committee in charge, Mr. and Mrs. William Rosing, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Pasa, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klase, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Triger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorne, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wodeen, have expressed their appreciation of the service rendered by various firms and persons toward making the dance a success.

Music for dancing was furnished by the poppy Antioch "Yellow Pages."

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tronson entertained "Rube" Tronson and his Co. boys Wednesday evening, before they fulfilled their engagement to play Brighton, Wis.

THREE CANDIDATES ARE IN RACE FOR
SUPERVISOR SEAT*Justice Wm. H. Regan Is in Field for Township's
Election Office

Antioch township's political pot has begun to simmer in earnest this week with the announcement that Justice William H. Regan has definitely decided to enter the contest for supervisor, the only elective office for which local voters will be asked to indicate a choice when they go to the polls April 7.

Three aspirants are now in the field, avowed and full-fledged candidates for the town's most important office. William A. Rosing, incumbent now completing his first term, recently filed his petition for re-election. It was yet the year 1930 when Joseph C. James, police magistrate, announced his intention of throwing his hat into the ring.

Justice Regan declares he does not seek the office of supervisor, but that it was only after repeated and urgent requests coming from all quarters of the township that he consented to become a candidate. Justice Regan, it will be remembered, topped the balloting here two years ago when he received 623 votes for justice of the peace.

Combine Father-Son Banquet and
Men's Club Dinner*Pictures on Negro Life to Be Shown; Fine Speaker
Is Secured

The annual Father and Son banquet of the Methodist church will be held tomorrow evening in conjunction with the Men's Club dinner which will be served at 8:30 by the ladies of the church. A fine program of toasts and music has been arranged to follow the dinner, with W. C. Petty acting as toastmaster. The chief speaker will be Harold Haggerty, pastor of Richmond, who has had several years' experience in the juvenile court in Chicago. Mr. Haggerty's experiences will hold much interest for the boys and their fathers.

The three boys giving toasts will be Jack Panowski, who will speak on "What Fathers Can Do for Their Sons"; Robert Brogan, who will tell of "Some Good Times I've Had with My Dad"; and Harold Nelson, who will discuss "What Dad Means to Me."

Three fathers have also agreed to express themselves in toasts: "A Father's Dream for His Sons" will be the subject of E. A. Grutzmacher's talk, while George Bartlett will tell of "What My Sons Mean to Me," and S. B. Nelson will speak on "What Boys Can Do for the Home."

After singing fraternal and paternal songs, stereoscopic pictures on the conditions under which the Negro exists in the city will be shown in remembrance of Abraham Lincoln, the Emancipator.

SAFETY FIRST CAMPAIGN SHOWS RESULTS

The motorcoach continues to hold the lead as the safest type of motor vehicle in California.

In a report on accidents, compiled by the California State Division of Motor Vehicles for October, 1930, motorcoaches are given the place of honor for the smallest number of accidents. They have held that place consistently since the division undertook the publication of accident reports.

The report shows that of a total of 4,243 accidents involving motor vehicles, 3,576 were passenger cars; 377 were trucks; 145 were motorcycles; 58 were light delivery cars; 36 were taxicabs, and motorcoaches were 3.

The responsible bus lines of the nation have made determined efforts to promote safety on the highways. It will usually be found that the recklessly driven bus is the property of some small "wildcat" line, and efforts are now being made to banish these from the highways by putting buses under regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The major lines, well financed and organized, are providing the public with fast, economical and dependable service.

FROM SHEEP TO WOLF

It is reported that higher gas taxes are being sought in about half of the 48 states whose legislatures meet this year.

This is one problem that should find the oil industry and the motorist in perfect accord. The gas tax has unquestionably been a good thing in that it has helped build highways—but a good thing can be done to death. And that is exactly what is happening to the gas tax.

Government expenses are constantly on the rise. Property-owners, security-owners, businesses, builders—all are staggering beneath a weight of taxes. As a result, many legislators get the bright idea that another cent on the gas tax will raise revenue without, at the same time, causing public revolt.

This may have been true in the past, but the revolt has come. A tax which amounts to twenty or thirty per cent of the price of a product is almost confiscatory and in addition, an increasing number of states have used the gas tax for purposes other than roads. The motorist, once a sheep, is rapidly turning into a wolf, with his eye on the legislators who are advocating higher gas taxes.

Drastic action is necessary, before, as one writer says, "You will hear some galoot of an officeholder telling how he has 'reduced taxes,' meaning that he has stolen so much from the gasoline tax fund that the general property taxes were not needed that year."

"Just put it on my bill," sobbed a young widow, as she left a wreath at the cemetery.

Our farmer friends now have more time than they will have at any other time in the year to check up on small or great building improvements. Come in, next time you are in town, and let us talk things over. Perhaps we can make a suggestion that will be well worth while to you. We will not charge you a cent for it.

Military experts say that nobody can carry on two wars at once. That is probably why they fired the young cadet from West Point when he got married.

Yes, you can buy bargain coal, just as you can hosiery or groceries. But the rule is that the customer gets just what he pays for. We have never yet seen a low price and a high quality combined. It simply can't be done.

Winter is a great time for roof fires, when the chimneys are pouring out sparks. Nearly a quarter of all fires are roof fires. You can't afford to be burned out. The answer is a beautiful asphalt Mule-Hide roof. Let us figure with you on it. Every thing considered, you can't get a more inexpensive one.

A little boy here in Antioch recently had the mumps, and one of his favorite delicacies, tomato catsup, was cancelled from his diet. After he had sufficiently recovered, some catsup was set before him one evening at supper. As he said his customary grace, he added, "And thank you for the catsup, Lord—if I can eat it."

There are many people in this community who would like to remodel their homes. If you are thinking of such a plan, we wish you'd come in and see us. Or we shall be glad to come out to your home and offer such suggestions and information as we can.

We've just heard about two elderly gentlemen—both very deaf—who were walking up the Soo railroad tracks the other day when a train let out a very loud whistle. "Why," said one, "that's the first robin I've heard this year."

If there are unemployed in our town, you can do an act of kindness and serve yourself well at the same time by making some of the improvements needed about your place. Some of them may require a mechanic, but others can be done by any handy person. We can probably suggest the person, and supply most of the needed material.

SCOUT EXHIBIT TO BE THE LAST WORD IN SKILL

Old Scouts and Scouters to Be Recognized at 21st
Anniversary

Arrangements for the First Annual Scout Craft Exhibit, which is to be held at the Armory, 228 North County street, Waukegan, evenings of February 12 and 13, and both afternoon and evening of February 14, have been completed, and an impressive showing is promised in the inaugural display of the handwork of the Lake County Boy Scouts.

Considerable interest in the approaching Boy Scout event has been shown. Zealous efforts by the Scouts have resulted in an exhibit which warrants the attention of every parent, according to Warren Blodgett, Scout executive of Lake county.

One of the features of the exhibit will be several informal talks and discussions of camping and woodlore, by Bob Becker, Chicago writer and noted hunting and fishing authority. Two performances a day will also be staged by picked groups of Lake county Scouts, demonstrating helpful hints for the outdoor enthusiast and lessons learned in the development of the perfect Scout.

Twenty-two booths, each one displaying in detail the results of individual merit award activities, will be erected in the Armory the day before the opening of the exhibit.

Popular estimates indicate that the attendance for the three days will probably reach 4,000 and provisions have been made for entertaining this number during the afternoon and evening sessions. The exhibit is Lake County's share of a National Boy Scout Anniversary Week, which will be observed throughout the United States from February 8-15.

Old Scouts Welcome.
All present and past Scouts and Scouters are invited to call at the information desk in the Waukegan Armory and register their names in celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of the incorporation of the Scouting movement in the United States.

Added to the 650 men and boys now enrolled in the Scout movement in the territory of the Lake county council, Boy Scouts of America, are approximately 1,500 others who have been registered as Scouts or leaders at some time since the movement was incorporated in 1910.

Pioneering Merit Badge.
Among the tests the Scout must pass in qualifying for the pioneering merit badge are: Building a lean-to; constructing a bridge; tying twelve different knots; lashing spurs together; and the making of a camp kitchen.

Cooking.
Among other accomplishments, the boys can cook and will demonstrate their ability to prepare a real meal at the exhibit.

Radio.
In exhibiting the radio merit badge at the Scout Craft Show, Howard Knaack, assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 42 in Lake Bluff, who operates his own licensed transmitting and receiving station and is an authority on radio, is building a complete transmitting and receiving station to be installed in the Armory.

The operator will be glad to take messages from you and transmit them as radiograms any place in the United States free of charge.

If you have never heard stations in England, or some other foreign nation, and would like to do so, be sure to visit the radio exhibit. Mr. Knaack has constructed a receiving set of such caliber that he will be able to receive in English stations for you to hear.

Built With Bricks 3,500 Years Old

Here is the oldest railroad station in the world, insofar as the material used in its construction is concerned. The station, built almost entirely of bricks which date to the reign of King Ashurnasirpal, over 3,500 years ago, has just been erected on the Khorasand railroad at Tell Billa in Mesopotamia by an archeological expedition from the University of Pennsylvania museum and the American School of Oriental Research in Baghdad. It serves as a shipping depot and storage house.

Electricity is a JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES on the farm

Electricity is a Jack-of-all-trades on modern farms—and master of them all. Besides lighting up the home, the yard and the barn, electricity is saving both time and labor for the farmer, speeding through his chores and doing them more efficiently than he can by hand.

In the barn electricity will grind grain, supply fresh drinking water for the cattle, milk the cows. In the dairy it will cool milk to low temperatures, separate cream, churn butter. In the poultry house it will hatch and brood chickens, warm their food and water, treat them with healthful ultra-violet rays while they are growing. In the yard electricity will pump water, cut silage, fill the silo. In the farm home it will clean, wash, heat water, sew and—most important of all—make cooking and refrigeration safe and easy.

The Public Service Company is serving 7,000 farms with electricity, bringing them the efficient production methods of industry and city standards of living at moderate cost.

Write or phone your nearest Public Service Store to find out how you can have electric service brought to your farm. One of our men assigned to farm electrification will call on you and explain just what it will cost. He can also give you complete information about all the labor-saving equipment mentioned above. No obligation.

The new Ford is an economical car to own and drive

Low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation mean a distinct saving to every purchaser

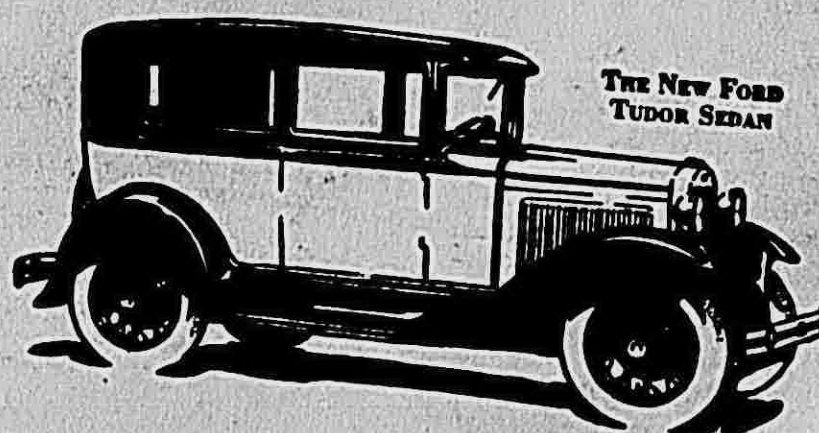

THE NEW FORD is a splendid car to own and drive because of its attractive lines and colors, safety, comfort, speed, reliability and long life.

There are, in addition, three other features of importance to every far-seeing automobile owner... low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

During the life of the car, the day-by-day economy of owning a Ford will amount to considerably more than the saving on the first cost. You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

The reasons for this economy are simplicity of design, high quality of materials and care in manufacturing and assembling. Many vital parts are made to limits of one one-thousandth of an inch. Some to three ten-thousandths of an inch. Throughout, the new Ford is an outstanding example of fine craftsmanship in automobile engineering.

The more you see of the new Ford—the more you talk to Ford owners and experienced mechanics—the more certain you become of this fact. . . . It brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

WILMOT H. S. DEFEATS CLINTON IN BASKETBALL

Schick Test Is Given To The Children of Randall Township

The local basketball team defeated Clinton Friday evening. The Wilmot boys showed their superiority over Clinton during the entire game. The local reserves defeated the local Lutheran team in a close and bitterly fought game by a score of 16-15. Friday evening, both teams travel to Williams Bay for a return game.

On Wednesday and Friday, the Schick test was given to children of Randall township at the Twin Lakes school.

Earl Harm, Bernice, Iola and Amy Harm, Margaret and Clarence Kufalk and Robert Runyard, motored to Kenosha Sunday afternoon.

Mary Swanson and Blanche Carey spent Thursday in Chicago.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will meet at the church hall Thursday afternoon, February 19.

LAKE VILLA HOME IS THREATENED BY FIRE

Anniversary of Woman's Club Celebrated With Fitting Program

Late Monday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Atwell heard a roaring noise and discovered the basement of their home full of smoke. The cause was found to be a smoldering box of ashes. The Antioch fire department was called, but the smudge was extinguished before the engine's arrival.

The Woman's Club of Lake Villa held its regular meeting at the Community church Tuesday of last week, celebrating the third anniversary of the founding of the club with a 1 o'clock dinner. A delightful program followed the luncheon.

Among those confined to their homes by the flu during the past week were Mrs. John Nader, Mrs. Leo Tweed and Mrs. Wm. Weber, Jr.

Two more cases of scarlet fever have been reported. Edith Murphy is one victim and Virginia Hadad, who had the disease three years ago, is the other. Warren and Betty Jane Hadad are in Chicago with their grandmother until the quarantine is lifted.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dixon is suffering from pneumonia, but is improving.

Mrs. Frank Hamlin and Mrs. Alice Howard were in Waukegan last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reinebach and Betty Jane spent Sunday with relatives at Lake Forest.

Mrs. George Mitchell, of Chicago, visited her sister, Mrs. William Weber, Jr., last week and on Thursday was called to Whitewater by the death of Mrs. Ray Kerr's father, Mr. Fryer, there.

Mrs. Joe Nader, Mrs. Frank Nader and Mrs. Fred Hamlin were Waukegan visitors Friday and called on Ellen Nader, who is a patient in the Lake county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGlashen, of Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker Sunday.

William Walker, Jr., sustained a broken right arm last Saturday, when he was cranking his Ford.

The teachers of Lake Villa school sponsored a card party at the hall last Friday.

The funeral of Mrs. Earl Potter, of Waukegan, was held Tuesday afternoon, in Waukegan. The Potters formerly lived in Lake Villa.

Mrs. William Duncan entertained the members of the bridge club at her home last Thursday, honors being won by Mrs. Joe Nader, Mrs. Georgia Avery and Mrs. Gulletto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hook, of Waukegan, entered a number of their former neighbors from Monaville last Friday evening.

"Spirit" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 8.
The Golden Text was, "If ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law" (Galatians 5:18).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit being God, there is but one Spirit, for there can be but one infinite and therefore one God" (p. 334).

ENGAGE BENSEN-
VILLE THIRD TIME*Take Tilt with Barrington
But Drop Game to Warren

Which will it be this time? Antioch or Bensenville? Tomorrow night will be the third time this year that these two teams clash. Although the local team was whipped, 46-21, on the Bensenville floor early in the season, Antioch, with several men out with mumps, turned the tables in the tournament and, gaining an edge on their opponents, chalked up a 24-21 victory. Antioch boys, while expecting to prove themselves the better in the third round, nevertheless look for a close and exciting game.

The seventh and eighth grade students at the grade school will be given free passes to this game.

Down Barrington.
With Brogan back to his usual good form, and Turk getting hot, the boys defeated Barrington on the home floor Friday night, 31-20. Reversing their usual procedure of lagging in the first half, the locals gained an early lead, and kept it. At the half, the score stood 20-9, in Antioch's favor. The Barrington boys, rallied somewhat during the second half and showed themselves an equal match for Antioch.

The outlook for victory looked rather dreary at the end of the second team game, which the locals lost, 19-17, after a game which was very closely contested, neither team displaying many outstanding plays.

Loss to Riviera.
Antioch now has one more defeat at the hands of their nearest rival, Warren township high school, after dropping their game Monday night on the Gurnee floor, 39-28. Warren's team, with Hook, Belcek and Gehrke starring, snatched from the local team all hope of victory during the fourth quarter, although King and Keulman evidenced their usual steadiness and good performance. Before that fatal fourth quarter, the Warren-Blue Devils were more than once challenged for the lead. The second team also lost.

Miss Ella Dobrinski and Miss Nellie Stanton of the Fox Lake grade school visited the Antioch grade school Friday afternoon.

The members of the sixth grade are busy arranging miniature stage properties, creating puppets, and learning parts for a puppet play of William Tell, which they will present before the various classes. The scene is set in Switzerland, and the work combines study in geography, history and art.

Another contest is being conducted in the fifth grade room. This week the contest is in arithmetic, and the pupil receiving the highest average for the week in each row will be given a pencil or an eraser. Every week, the contest will be in a different subject.

A number of the students attended the funeral of their schoolmate, Bob, by Davis, Monday.

The local grade school basketball team, in a thrilling game with the Gurnee team here, Tuesday night, was defeated by one point, 11-10.

Valentine's Day! Every child in school will receive a Valentine from the big Valentine boxes on Friday. The spirit of Saint Valentine, the patron saint of all lovers, is found in the many and varied verses and hearts which are tucked in those Valentine boxes. For the priest, Saint Valentine, hundreds of years ago, in the reign of Emperor Claudius of Rome, who banned marriage, secretly united in marriage many couples. Now, in his memory, the younger set re-live those Roman fates when the young folks selected their partners by drawing the names written on a slip of paper, which came to be called a Valentine.

TOWN TEAM IS ELIMINATED IN
FOX LAKE DUEL*St. Peter's and Moose Team to Engage in Game
Tonight

The town team just couldn't put it over last night when they attempted to toss more baskets than the strong Grayslake Merchants at the tournament, which is being held at Fox Lake this week for town teams. They experienced the ignominy of a trimming by thirty points, 45-15. Other winners were: Lake Villa over Fox Lake, 34-17; Grayslake A. C. from Gurnee, 34-17; Wilmet Pirates from the Libertyville Fould's Macaroni, 47-18. Tonight the Grayslake Merchants will battle the Lake Villa team, and the Grayslake A. C. will take on the dangerous Wilmet Pirates.

Despite losing the game to the Thomet Rangers, of Waukegan, 32-19, the town team boys put up a fine battle against their more skilled opponents. Thomet, high scorer for Waukegan, was entirely out of the class of Antioch's best basket-sinkers.

Loss by Two Baskets.
St. Peter's are losing their games by smaller margins, when they lose them, and winning more than they did earlier in the season. The Libertyville American Legion team almost went home in defeat after the starting rally made by the Antioch boys in the second half, but kept their lead, and took the game, 26-22.

Libertyville teams proved to be Jonahs for St. Peter's this week. When they played the members of the Libertyville Murphy's garage on Sunday at Libertyville, they went down before the stronger team, 54-14. A game will be played at the high school gymnasium between St. Peter's and the Moose team tonight. The Grayslake town comes here next Thursday for a return game with St. Peter's.

Silver Lake Wins from Moose.
The Moose team will try their luck against St. Peter's tonight, with more prospects for victory than they had before the engagement with Silver Lake last night, which they lost. The Lake Forest A. C. and the Moose play next Tuesday night.

CRYSTAL THEATRE.
"Chicken Preferred" will be the comedy and drama offered by J. B. Rotnour Players at the Crystal next Tuesday night. "J. B." informs his many friends here that this is one of the 1931 plays and contains everything that is good in clean-cut comedy and powerful drama. There will be added vodvill between the acts by the singing and dancing team of Gaudin & Nash, also Billy, the comedian, Miss Fair and T. J. Brown.

The company continues to draw good houses at the Crystal and they are presenting some excellent productions of the spoken drama.

KENOSHA THEATRE.

"LITTLE CAESAR"
The new First National picture now showing at the Kenosha Theatre, gives a startlingly realistic impression of gangsters, from the lowest "rat," or petty thief, up to the "big boys," or heads of gangs. The picture shows vividly the various social strata within crookdom. The petty thieves and pickpockets are seen in cheap rooming houses in the foreign quarter of a large city, while the big racketeers live a life of luxury, if not security, in the swankier residential sections.

The story deals with the rise of a gangster named Rico, played by Edward G. Robinson, from the level of a thug to a position as head of a powerful gang. Director Mervyn LeRoy is said to have put technical details and realistic touches in the picture that make it the most authentic of the kind ever filmed.

With Mr. Robinson are Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Sidney Blackmer, Ralph Ince, William Collier, Jr., Glenda Farrell, Thomas Jackson and George E. Stone.

The story is a screen adaptation of the successful novel by W. B. Burnett.

LEWIS AYRES and LUPE VÉLEZ
"EAST IS WEST"
A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

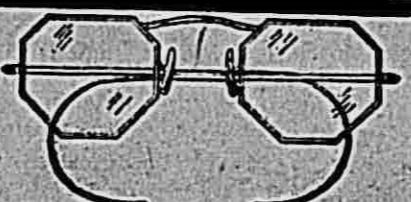

Ayres is now under contract to Universal and plays the leading masculine role of Billy Benson in "East Is West." Lupe Vélez and Edward G. Robinson are seen with him in this colorful Oriental, romantic drama. At the Kenosha Theatre, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

TOPPY'S TRAVELS

Synopsis: Topsy leaves home to follow his canary. After many adventures, he escapes from the hands of his enemies, the Pillows. In an effort to rescue his Queen, the Cloud-Queen, from the Pillows, he and his friends, Mr. Frog, and Toy, the dewdrop, arrange to cause the Cushions to fight the Cloud soldiers to fight and recapture their Queen. Continue:

In a very short time, Mr. Frog returned, dragging food. Six times he went away, and came back with food.

"Why can't I go with you?" Topsy wanted to know.

"You are too big," Mr. Frog answered.

Again Topsy wished that he could change himself into an elf, as the heroes had done in the fairy tales his mother had read to him.

"This food will last you for a week," Mr. Frog told him. "You must not leave this nest for any reason, whether or not guards are in the garden. When the week is over, I shall come back and bring you more food. Do not lose the sword or the key."

Topsy felt very miserable. He did not want to be left alone for a week. Nothing exciting could happen. If only Toy could stay and talk to him. Peeling suddenly hopeful, he suggested this to Mr. Frog.

"No, I need Toy," said Mr. Frog, and then turned to the little dewdrop. "Are you ready, Toy?"

"Yes, I'm ready. Good-bye, Topsy," "Good-bye," Topsy watched them through the branches, until they were out of sight.

The moon was still shining, but it was beginning to grow brighter in the east. Soon the sun would be up. The boy wondered if Mr. Frog and Toy would reach the land of the Cushions before the meeting. How far was it? What would the Cushions be like?

He stayed in his nest all day, concealed from the sight of the guards who strolled around the garden. He looked toward the Palace; sometimes a Cloud maiden came to the window and gazed forlornly over the country side, but Toy never saw the Queen.

Every night, guards watched, so that the Cloud maidens would not escape down the moonbeams.

Topsy restlessly spent three days in his hiding place, before he heard anything. Then one night he overheard the guards say that the Cushion Queen had refused to take the land the Pillows had offered her, and was demanding more.

The guards were worried. "We may soon have to leave this place and go home and fight," they said. "Then what will become of us?"

Topsy almost laughed aloud in glee, when he heard this. Mr. Frog and Toy were succeeding!

When the week had passed, and his food was nearly gone, the boy began to watch for Mr. Frog. Hour by hour passed, and still he did not come.

When the food was all gone, Topsy resolved to wait one more day, and then go and search for some, himself.

When the day had passed, Topsy was ravenously hungry. Grasping his sword, he left the nest, and crawled beneath branches and leaves. Soon it would be dark, the moon would rise, and the guards would enter the garden.

Hurrying, Topsy reached the garden gate safely. He did not know where he could find food. Spying a tent which stood a little distance from the Palace, he made his way over there.

Just as he reached it, a guard came out. Before he could scream, Topsy waved his sword, and pushed him into the tent. "Give me food!" he commanded.

The guard did as he was ordered, and the hungry boy ate and ate. Then he took all he could carry, after blinding the guard in the tent, and went back to the garden.

But when he reached the garden, it was filled with soldiers.

Eat Vegetables and Fruits for Health, Dieticians Advise

Deep Secrets of Vegetable World Stand Revealed

Verily, Verily, We Say Unto You: Give Children Vegetables

Tricks to every trade, even the vegetarian. From many sources we have garnered a number of hints in the manner of preparing vegetables to obtain the greatest value. From a Danish lady we learn the art of enabling vegetables to retain their original bright coloring: Soak in cold salt water for several hours. If a platter of various vegetables is served after they have been treated in this way, the appearance is gorgeous.

If you live where water is not plentiful, or must be carried to the house, the spinach doesn't worry, for about sixty-five per cent of its vitamins and mineral substances are lost if cooked in a large amount of water. It may just be steamed for ten or fifteen minutes if you prefer, or you may break off the leaves and steam them. The stems contain very little nutritive value.

Skins Have "It"
The potato isn't the only vegetable to have a skin complex. The carrot now claims that most of its food value is in the skin, and so demands to be cooked with its jacket on in very little water, one teaspoon salt to a quart of water. The skins may be slipped off the carrot when cool, the carrots sliced, re-heated with butter, and served with minced parsley.

Better than removing the skins is the practice of eating them, but if this is done, the best method of preparing vegetables is to bake them in a slow oven. Young turnips, beets, carrots, sweet potatoes and young parsnips, as well as potatoes may be baked on an oven grate. Nutrients lying near the skin are less liable to escape when the vegetable is baked, and slow baking prevents the formation of a thick, hard covering.

Cabbages and onions, says one housewife, may be boiled in a large amount of water, but not for long—seven minutes at the most for cabbage, or it may be cooked for five minutes in milk. Use the outer leaves of cabbage, shredded fine, for they contain about thirty times as much vitamin A, the sun vitamin, as the inner leaves. This vitamin protects against colds and lengthens the life span. Little children should be supplied with an abundance of whole milk, butter and leafy vegetables.

Watercress, also rich in vitamin A and iron, may be substituted for cabbage.

Meat and Vegetable Pie.
The cover for a meat and vegetable pie is made from baking powder biscuit dough, cut with a small dough-cutting cutter. This cover adds the crowning glory to what might otherwise be a plain stew. Vegetables such as carrots and potatoes may be cut with a ball or lattice cutter, to add a variety of shapes to attract the eye. Alternate layers of meat and different vegetables in the casserole, cooked in a little water until tender, also provide a surprise. One popular combination is potatoes, onions, celery, peas and carrots.

Here comes a new idea on cooking vegetables from the Iowa State college for boiling five minutes before adding the vegetables. Many of us do this without thinking about it, but the reason for it is that this expels the air, and it is the oxygen of the air that destroys vitamin C.

Nature's Food Is Perfect, Physician's Wife Writes News

Vegetables in Raw State Best—Cooking Destroys Vitamins, Minerals

BY MRS. WILLIAM FLETCHER, Salem, Wisconsin

When preparing vegetables for meals, ask yourself if you can eat the vegetables uncooked. If you can, you will find it best to do so.

Nature makes perfect articles of foods, purely flavored, richly colored, and in large variety. We cannot, by cooking, improve on nature's products, and if we try to do so, we lose some important value of the foods. This loss is the vitamins and minerals, which are mostly destroyed by the heat of cooking. Calories are affected in a lesser degree, but the reduction by heat tends to cause us to eat too large a volume of food. So, by eating vegetables raw, we eat more slowly since it takes longer to chew the vegetables uncooked, and we are less likely to overeat as the bulk is greater in comparison to the same amount of food cooked; and we do not suffer from the loss of vitamins and minerals.

Try the following, all raw, ground in a food chopper:

Two cups cabbage
One small carrot
One-half small onion
One small apple

Mix, and add a little "golden dressing."

For variation, use instead of the dressing, cream, or peas, or two tablespoons of crushed pineapple (canned if necessary) to four portions of the salad. Substitute ingredients or change the base of the salad by using celery cabbage, celery hearts, or lettuce instead of cabbage.

Suggestions: Use fruits (canned if fresh is unobtainable) instead of dressing. Use raw beets, carrots, and cauliflower in small proportions; celery and lettuce cut fine, flavored with a small amount of onion; pineapple or cranberries, radishes or peppers, sprouts chopped fine, to about one-fifth to one-tenth of the salad. Use all raw.

THE TOMATO STEPS INTO THE LIMELIGHT

Tomato Soup Now Popular Under Pseudonym of A B C Soup

The tomato now haunts its cheery color in the face of the world and makes that old body actually like it! And why shouldn't it? The possibilities of the tomato become greater every year. With the new knowledge of its importance, it now goes around proudly proclaiming that it is just chock full of vitamins, and this is no idle boast. Vegetable day could not pass without allowing the tomato some space.

Rich in Vitamins.
Scientists commend the tomato as a prolific source of vitamins A, B and C. Dr. A. F. Hess of Columbia University said: "From the nutritional standpoint it may be regarded as a palatable solution of the three vitamins." William Howard Fitch of the United States Medical Service said: "The popularity of the tomato, fresh and canned, is fully justified by our present knowledge of food values, for the tomato is rich in all three vitamins and retains them well when cooked and canned."

A B C Soup.
Everybody is drinking chilled tomato juice nowadays, but did it ever occur to you that you can take this same product and heat it, and thus have an excellent thin soup? It's a nourishing soup, too.

Mix together one part juice from canned sauerkraut and one part juice from canned tomatoes and cracked ice in a cocktail shaker. Season with salt and paprika and shake until very cold and foamy. Serve at once in tiny glasses.

Tomato soup is as attractive as it is good, especially if every steaming bowl is garnished with a few bits of marshmallows, quickly snipped off with the kitchen scissors. A common mistake in its preparation is that of adding soda to prevent curdling. Soda destroys vitamin C. There is no trick in avoiding the curds. They will not appear if the heated and strained tomato is poured slowly into the hot cream sauce just before the soup is served.

Now Fed to Babies.
Babies under one year are given strained tomato juice to supplement the milk, which has little vitamin C. Since we learned that the tomato is base-forming in the body, no one fears the acid of it. It is even given to those who suffer from an acid condition. When the tomato first came to be used as a food in this country, the acid was thought bad; hence it was used with sugar.

The present generation scorns sugar on tomatoes, and rightly so. Their flavor is excellent, in combination or alone. Many new uses have been given to it. One inn in New York state makes a specialty in August of escalloped corn and tomatoes. This is made with alternating layers of fresh corn and tomatoes, seasoning, and butter. Crumble cover the top. This is cooked in a hot oven from forty-five to sixty minutes. It is a delicious combination.

Select Pictures Which Harmonize With the Setting

Indiscriminate Collection of Photographs, Pictures Must Be Taboo

Antioch students and their parents, and, in fact, a great number of Antioch residents became much interested last year in the picture study courses at the high school and in the unusual exhibit of the masterpieces which Mr. Peterson, instructor, arranged for inspection last spring. This collection filled the sides of the entire auditorium and stage. At that time many took the opportunity of purchasing, at nominal cost, one or more of the larger pictures for their homes. Mrs. Richey comments upon their suitability as decorations for the various rooms of the home.

"Pictures certainly fall under interior decoration, for the influence of good pictures on children is remarkably striking. The pictures in a room should be few rather than many, and everything undesirable or questionable should be cast aside. One should avoid cluttering walls, and, if one picture is sufficient for a space, two pictures should not be used, for, generally speaking, we are not at all adept at galleries."

"In the selection of pictures, one must consider the rooms in which they are to be hung and not put a distinctly modern picture in a room made up of antique furnishings. If a room is of a definite period, it is naturally wise to choose pictures of that period and frame them accordingly. One should see things as a whole; avoid monotony in the choice of pictures as in everything else, but do not hang right pictures in the wrong rooms or put together things that are vastly different in character. For example, a lovely picture of a "Madonna" and one of a "Fox Hunter" would have nothing in common. Photographs with strong folders and framed photographs of our friends, relatives and acquaintances are most properly placed if put into our bedrooms or private sitting-rooms, for we treasure them highly, while to the stranger or casual callers, they do not mean so much. Generally speaking, these pictures look much better stood upon tables, low bookcases or such places, rather than hung upon the wall."

GREEN FOOD IS IMPERATIVE FOR MID-WINTER MEALS

Vegetable Recipes Galore Will Paint Our Cheeks With Red Roses

Has the vegetable bug bitten you yet? Judging from the amount of material which comes to this office, vegetarians are becoming so prevalent that some children when asked the nationality of their mothers do not reply that they are German or Scotch, as the case may be, but answer seriously, "Vegetarian!"

In planning interesting vegetable dinners, the following points should be remembered:

1. Consider color—include green vegetables such as lettuce, spinach or peas; colorful vegetables such as carrots or tomatoes or beets; and light vegetables such as potatoes, cabbage or cauliflower.
2. Have vegetables cooked by various methods, serving one creamed vegetable, one fried, one buttered, and another baked.
3. Have vegetables of various texture—crisp lettuce, celery or pickles, meaty potatoes, and softer vegetables such as peas, corn, or beans.

Sauerkraut.
A great many people like sauerkraut, not only cold sauerkraut juice as a healthful drink, but the hot kraut itself as a tasty food. If you want to cook it in a casserole, which is a mighty good way, put some bacon fat in the bottom of the dish, then a layer of kraut, and continue to alternate the layers. Cook for several hours, and the result will have a rich meaty flavor which will make you ask for more. If there's any left, which isn't likely, put in the refrigerator and use it as the basis for a salad the next day.

News Subscriber Writes of Spring In Friday Harbor

G. H. Pitman, Formerly of Libertyville, Enthused
With Climate

California, Florida or other southern and south-western states are not the only sections of the country to speak proudly of their climate. Here is another country heard from! G. H. Pitman, of Friday Harbor on San Juan Island off the coast of Washington, sends an article from the Friday Harbor Journal. Mr. Pitman moved from Libertyville to this island last fall, and therefore has a very favorable opportunity of contrasting the two climates. The paper is dated January 29, 1931.

"Insofar as the San Juan Islands are concerned, the near approach of spring is visible on every hand. This is reflected in a number of yards about town where outdoor flowers are opening along the highways in gorgeous abundance, and last week the writer was informed of a wild red currant bush that was almost ready to burst into bloom. It is also noted that the Scotch broom here and there shows a fleck of yellow blossom. The four cups of seasoned mashed potatoes lightly on top, dot with butter and brown in a hot oven. This recipe will serve eight persons.

Peas Change Their Habits.

Peas used to be served almost everywhere with cream sauce in a "side dish." Who does not remember the numerous little "bird baths" full of vegetables which used to clutter up the table? But, since we have all become more or less vegetarians, peas are now eaten straight, without any cream sauce, as part of the meal on the plate, and "side dishes" are pretty much things of the past. "Move over and give me room," peas have said to the mutton chop, or whatever meat you had on your plate, and these obliging vlands have done so to the benefit of all concerned. Peas taste better served in this modern fashion, and the same thing holds true of canned whole grain corn.

Peas combine well not only with other meats but with vegetables. Here is a recipe for combining them with fresh tomatoes which will make everyone come back for more.

Peas with Fresh Tomatoes: Cut three or four tomatoes which are not too soft into pieces and saute gently in three tablespoons butter. Season well with salt and pepper, and add the drained contents of a can of peas, or all the contents of a can of vacuum packed peas. Heat and serve. This recipe will serve eight people.

Be sure to save the liquor from the peas to use in a soup or a sauce if you use the kind that are put up in brine, as this liquor is rich in vitamins and mineral salts.

Asparagus.

Wash, scrape, cut off about one inch hard ends, and tie together. Put into saucepan, cover with boiling water, and boil until tender, keeping tips out of water for the first ten minutes; add salt. Remove from water, lay on pieces of toast and serve with melted butter, cream or Hollandaise sauce.

Pickled Beets.

Wash and boil six medium sized beets until tender. Remove skins; slice or cut into quarters; cover with one-half cup vinegar, one tablespoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper and one tablespoon sugar.

Deviled Corn.

Melt two tablespoons butter, add two tablespoons flour, and stir until well blended. Add one and one-half cups milk and cook until thickened. Then add two cups canned corn, two eggs slightly beaten, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon prepared mustard and a dash of paprika. Pour into a buttered baking pan and cover with buttered crumbs. Place in a moderate oven—350 degrees F.—and bake until firm. Serve with slices of grilled bacon if desired.

Baked Bean Timbales.

Mash one medium sized can of oven baked beans, vegetarian style, and add one well beaten egg, two tablespoons melted butter, one-half teaspoon salt, a few drops of onion juice, and a dash of pepper. Pour into buttered muffin tins or timbale molds, and bake in a pan of hot water in a moderate oven until firm. Remove from molds, and serve with chili sauce.

Browned Parsnips.

One quart parsnips
One teaspoon salt
Two tablespoons butter or bacon drippings

One-eighth teaspoon pepper
Wash, pare and cut parsnips into one-half inch slices. Cover with boiling water and boil until tender, 25 to 30 minutes; drain. Brown on greased griddle or frying pan. Season with salt and pepper.

Rice and Carrot Soup.

One cup mashed, cooked carrots
One cup carrot stock (water in which carrots were boiled)
Three-fourths teaspoon salt
One-eighth teaspoon pepper
Few grains nutmeg
Three cups milk

Two tablespoons cornstarch
One tablespoon butter or other fat
Three-fourths cup cooked rice
One and one-half teaspoons minced parsley

Combine the carrots, carrot water and milk. Scald, season, and thicken with the cornstarch and fat creamed together. Add the rice, re-heat, and serve, or bottle.

PIRATE TREASURE

Th' yarn I'm goin' to spin today has to do with somethin' that happened years ago when I was sailin' on a packet, th' Northern Light.

Some of th' crew were smokin' in th' lee of th' fo'c'stle when a little runt
we called Coppertack Harry began to spin a yarn about his granddad who had been a pirate with Henry Morgan. Coppertack said his granddad had told him how he had seen big chests of gold doubloons, diamonds, pearls, and such like piled up on deck, with th'
crew waitin' for it to be divided by Morgan.

Well s'r, while he was rattlin' away on this pirate stuff I fell asleep and dreamed one of th' strangest dreams you ever heard.
Here it is:

Right in front of me, in a kind of a cloud, was a treasure chest of gold.
Leavin' over th' chest lookin' at me were two pirates.

Then th' dream shifted, and I was standin' at th' mouth of a cave. One of th' pirates was with me, pointin' into th' cave and tellin' me th'
treasure was inside.

Then I found myself in th' cave. Th' pirate had gone, but in front of me was a big lizard perched on a rock and hiss'n at me. I'd no sooner skipped past him when an octopus reached out his long arms from a slimy pool and tried to grab me. Then, just ahead, I saw th' treasure chest. I made for it, and was just about to scoop up some of th' gold when a big pirate with a cutlass in his hand rose up and made for me. I grabbed an armful of th' gold and lit out for th' mouth of th' cave. I'd just gotten outside when that d'ingbusted
pirate landed on my neck, with me yellin' like a good one—and then I woke up, to find th' crew gappin' at me, thinkin' I was havin' a fit.
